
2nd Oxford Medical Education Conference:
Challenges in shaping clinical education in the modern NHS - Today's trainees, today's leaders

Magdalen College,
Oxford
15th May 2014

Programme

08.30-09.00	Registration and coffee
09.00-09.05	Welcome	Dr. Hasanen Al Taiar (Lead, conference organizing committee)
09.05-09.45	The future of medical services and the implications for medical education	Prof. Richard Canter (Associate Dean & Head of School of Surgery, Severn Deanery)
09.45-09.50	Today's trainee, today's leader	Dr. Kalin Asli
09.50-10.30	Challenges in postgraduate curriculum development for tomorrow's education	Prof. Janet Grant (Emeritus Professor of Education in Medicine, The Open University & Director of The Centre for Medical Education in Context)
10.30-10.55	Coffee Break
10.55-11.00	Today's trainee, today's leader	Dr. Ben Attwood
11.00-11.30	How to develop medical leadership?	Mrs. Rebecca Black (Consultant Obstetrician and Head of School, Obstetrics and Gynaecology, Oxford Deanery)
11.30-12.00	The role of communication in shaping clinical education	Ms. Melinda Lawler (Radio Presenter, CDU coach)
12.00-12.05	Today's trainee, today's leader	Miss. Rose Penfold
12.05-13.05	Panel debate- "Should all clinical educators have a formal qualification in education?"	Chair: Prof Sir Simon Wesseley (President elect Royal College Of Psychiatrists) Panel members FOR: Dr. Marion Lynch (Associate GP Dean, Oxford) Dr. Stephan Hinze (Consultant Neurologist, Swindon) Panel members AGAINST: Dr. Emma Plugge (Course Director for MSc Global Health) Mr. Ashok Handa (Consultant Vascular Surgeon and Clinical Reader in Surgery, Oxford University Hospital)

13.05-14.00	Lunch
14.00-16.00	Parallel Workshops (14.00-14.50 and repeated at 15.10-16.00)
	Curriculum design for the modern NHS	Prof. Janet Grant (Director of The Centre for Medical Education in Context)
	Clinical leadership development	Dr. Marion Lynch (Associate GP Dean, Oxford)
	Simulation training in the modern NHS	Miss. Alex Cope (SpR General Surgery & Simulation Fellow)
16.00-16.30	Summary report	Miss. Roba Khundar (OMEF Lead)
	Summary response	Dr. Peter Sullivan (Director of Medical Education, Oxford University Hospital)
16.30	Close of Meeting	